Employment Offer Letter

Dear Peter,

We are pleased to offer you the position of Operations Analyst with Northwind Harbor Logistics. This letter sets out the main terms of your employment. Please read all three pages. Your signature is requested at the end of the letter.

1. Position and reporting

You will join the Terminal Planning team at our Port Meridian office and report to the Planning Manager. Your work covers berth schedules, yard capacity reports and the weekly performance review for inbound cargo.

2. Start date and hours

Your employment begins on the start date agreed with People Operations. Standard hours are 40 per week, Monday to Friday. Hybrid working is available after your first four weeks, with at least three office days each week.

3. Compensation

Your base salary is USD 72,000 per year, paid twice a month. You are eligible for the annual performance bonus plan with a target of 8 percent of base salary, pro-rated in your first year.

4. Probation

The first 90 days of employment are a probation period. During this time either party may end the employment with one week of written notice.

Your details

If you go by a name other than your legal first name, tell us below. This field is optional and can be left empty.

Preferred name (optional) _____

5. Benefits

From your first day you are covered by the company medical, dental and vision plans. The company pays 80 percent of the employee premium. You may enrol dependants during your first 30 days.

You are enrolled in the retirement savings plan after 60 days. The company matches your contributions up to 4 percent of base salary.

6. Paid time off

You accrue 18 days of paid time off per year, in addition to 10 company holidays. Unused days up to a limit of 5 carry over to the following year.

7. Equipment and expenses

The company provides a laptop, a monitor and a mobile allowance of USD 40 per month. Approved business travel is reimbursed under the Travel and Expense Policy.

8. Confidentiality and conduct

As a condition of employment you will sign the Confidentiality Agreement and acknowledge the Employee Handbook. Both documents are in your onboarding packet.

9. Learning and development

You have an annual learning budget of USD 1,500 for courses and certifications related to your role, subject to your manager's approval.

10. Relocation

This position does not include relocation assistance.

11. Ending employment

After probation, either party may end the employment with four weeks of written notice. The company may pay salary in place of notice.

12. Entire offer

This letter, together with the documents it refers to, is the whole offer and replaces any earlier discussion. Changes must be made in writing and signed by both parties.

13. Acceptance

To accept this offer, sign below. By signing you confirm that you have read all three pages and accept the terms set out in this letter. This offer remains open until the due date shown in your signing portal.

We look forward to working with you.
